

1. Install free Overdrive app.

- a. Go to the Amazon Shop and install the Overdrive app.
- b. Open the Overdrive app and follow the steps to create a free Overdrive account.

2. Getting to My Media Mall

- a. Tap the navigation bar in the top left corner.
- b. Tap Add Library and look for Itasca Community Library.
- c. Tap the star next to My Media Mall to save it to your library.
- d. Tap the MMM link.

3. Finding eBooks

- a. In MMM, sign in (upper right corner). In the drop-down menu choose Itasca Community Library. Enter your ICL card number and PIN.
- b. On the MMM homepage, search for a eBook or audiobook by tapping the magnifying glass, or browse for titles.
- c. Advanced Search can narrow your search and limit the format. If you don't want to wait for a book, check the Show only titles with copies available box, then tap search.

4. Borrow

- a. When you see an available eBook you want, tap the cover, then tap borrow.
- b. You can check out eBooks in EPUB format or Kindle.
- c. EPUB: tap download, then EPUB format, then confirm and download. The eBook will be added to the Overdrive app bookshelf.
- d. Kindle: tap download, then Kindle, then confirm and download. You will be rerouted to Amazon.com. Sign in with your Amazon account information, then tap Get Library Book. The eBook will be downloaded and appear on your Kindle home page. Use Manage Your Content and Devices on the Amazon site to return your eBook early.

5. Place a hold

- a. If you search for a eBook without limiting it to only available copies the book might be checked out. You can see how many copies the library owns and how many people are on hold by tapping the title of the eBook. Tap on the eBook then tap Place a hold.
- b. Available books will have a black icon in the top right corner and checked out books will have a gray icon.
- c. When your hold becomes available it will automatically check out to your account. You can turn this feature off in the Holds section of your MMM account. If you turn the auto-checkout off then you will have three days to check out the book once it is available.
